This half term in Dockyard Class

Our Big Question was...
How does Science help us to understand the world?

This half term in Dockyard Class we have been learning about evolution and inheritance. We used forensics to solve the mystery of

"The Dockyard Delinquent"

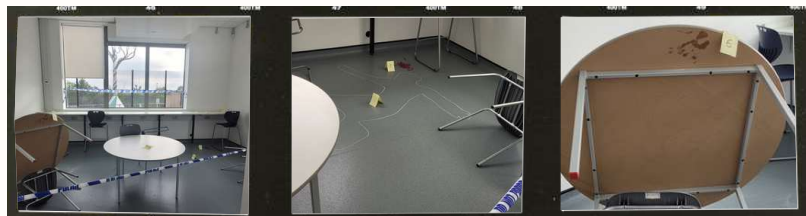

by measuring suspects shoes, taking finger prints and decoding hidden messages in Morse code.

BREAKING NEWS! MURDER MYSTERY AT THE WYMERING SCHOOL! LIBRARY ATTACK!

By Lex

(EVIDENCE) Strange white powder found at crime scene, believed to be illegal.
Suspect could be a cleaner.

(STORY) In what is believed to be late hours, a shady exchange takes place; what is thought to be illegal drugs is transitioned between cleaner and... child?! The cleaner realises that the exchange was a scam! It was just a kid giving salt to anyone dumb enough to buy it! The suspect did NOT like that, and so decides to smash the child on the table, turn over another, and repeatedly slam the child everywhere! The attacker then smashes the head of the child multiple times, and finally leaves them there, presumably dead.

How you can support at home

Thank you for all your support and understanding this half term as we have transitioned into a new class and for many a new school, it has really helped your child and their peers in Dockyard Class settle in.

Remember to check the communication book that goes home every day. This allows us to have constant communication between home and school. We share what your child has been up to in their lessons, reminders of up coming events and notes of importance from your child's day. You are also welcome to send us notes and reminders through this book too.

Dockyard Class have started using TT Rock Stars. Times Tables Rock Stars is a carefully sequenced programme of daily times tables practice. Your child's login details have been stuck into their communication book if they wish to continue their rocking at home.

The Wymering School Facebook page is constantly updated so please keep an eye on that for any upcoming events.

I get to make important decisions for our school.
