This half term in ... Victorious

What is going on in Victorious this half term?

What a busy half term it has been in Victorious class. We have been progressing well with our options classes, finding different ways to make English and maths more practical for students in order to aid their understanding of skills needed for their functional skills qualifications.

There have been careers visits from Kath Constable at Portsmouth City Council and she has met with 3 out of 6 in the class to discuss options beyond school; the remaining students will have their session after half term.

They have also enjoyed a session to Pompey Pedals where they have cycled for 60 minutes without stopping- this has been a huge hit and students cannot wait to go again.

We have enjoyed a lot of cooking opportunities and the favourite lesson was the pancakes; where we found out that I am not any good at flipping them.

Last of all we have started our On a Wym business and we have been very busy trying to sort products, branding and prices so watch this space.

KS4 Residential 2024

We appreciate the anxiety that students and families will have around the residential. There will be a parents information session before the residential as well as an information pack and social story to send home.
